MKA PROMOTES NINE EMPLOYEES TO SENIOR ASSOCIATE, ASSOCIATE, AND ASSOCIATE SENIOR BIM POSITIONS

SEATTLE, WA — Magnusson Klemencic Associates (MKA) is pleased to announce the promotion of nine employees to Senior Associate, Associate, and Associate Senior Building Information Modeler (BIM) positions.

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

- Jon Pfrommer, PE, SE — Jon brings a rich understanding of state-of-the-art approaches to Performance-Based Seismic Design, especially in seismically active Southern California. His decade of large-scale design experience includes feature projects such as 611 Island Avenue in San Diego, and The Gayley at Wilshire and Beaudry towers in Los Angeles.
- Alex Wiley, PE, SE — Focusing on high-rise residential and hospitality projects, Alex is a rising project manager leading projects across the country. His design experience also reflects his expertise in concrete design advancements. His feature projects include the Salt Lake City Convention Center Hotel, The Ivey on Boren in Seattle, and 1000M in Chicago.

ASSOCIATE

- Leikune Aragaw, PE, SE — A member of MKA's Sports and Cultural Specialist Groups, Leikune's recent design experience includes Colburn School of Music in Los Angeles.

MAGNUSSON
ASSOCIATES

- Will Bader, PE, SE — A member of the firm's Convention Specialist Group, Will has designed convention centers from coast to coast, with recent highlights including the BMO Convention Centre Expansion in Calgary, Alberta, Canada.
- Hannah Bonotto, PE, SE — Hannah is a member of MKA's Cultural Specialist Group. Her most recent project work includes being the Structural Project Manager for the soon-to-be-completed Seattle Aquarium Ocean Pavilion
- David Sand, PE, SE — A member of MKA's civil team, David's design work reflects a variety of office, mixed-use, and large-scale government embassies internationally. One of his most recent efforts was the new United States Embassy in Juba, South Sudan.
- Krista Seaman, PE, SE — Krista is a member of the firm's Sports Specialist Group. Her portfolio reflects professional and collegiate facilities, and she has recently held Structural Project Manager roles for designs such as the University of San Diego Recreation, Wellness, and Aquatic Center.

ASSOCIATE SENIOR BIM

- Erica Langdon — Bringing extensive experience in BIM design for a wide variety of project types, Erica excels at documenting complex geometry and recently collaborated on 200 Park Avenue Office Tower in San Jose, California—the second high-rise to feature SpeedCore.
- Conor McCartney — Conor's BIM experience includes complex projects located worldwide with designs as large as 5.5 million square feet, most recently contributing his drafting skills to the 2.5-million-square-foot Indiana University Adult Academic Health Center Hospital Building in Indianapolis, Indiana.
